Polymesh may terminate this Agreement immediately upon notice to Licensee if: (a) Licensee fails to comply with any material term or condition of this Agreement and such non-compliance is not corrected to Polymesh's satisfaction within five (5) days after written notice of the non-compliance (unless such breach is incapable of being cured, in which case Polymesh may terminate this Agreement immediately); or (b) Licensee is liquidated or dissolved, or becomes insolvent, or suffers a receiver or trustee to be appointed for it, or makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors or institutes or has instituted against it any proceeding under any law relating to bankruptcy or insolvency or the reorganization or relief of debtors.

12.3 Survival. The following provisions of this Agreement shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement (in addition to any liability arising under this Agreement prior to such termination or expiration), and shall continue in full force and effect following such termination or expiration: Sections 3, 6, 8, 9.2, 10, 11, 12.2, 12.3, and 14-18.

13 Assignment. The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties and their successors and permitted assigns. Polymesh may assign this Agreement (in whole or in part) and any of Polymesh's rights or obligations under this Agreement, in Polymesh's sole discretion.

14 Governing Law and Venue. This Agreement will be interpreted, construed, and governed by the laws of the State of New York, United States. Licensee agrees that the state or federal courts located in New York County, New York shall have sole and exclusive jurisdiction over any disputes or any application for equitable relief; any claim shall be brought only in federal or state courts located in New York County, New York, and each party expressly waives any claim that the jurisdiction of such court with respect to personal jurisdiction is improper or that the venue is inconvenient or improper. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to create an agency, partnership, joint venture, or franchise between the parties and neither party has the authority to act in the name or on behalf of or otherwise to bind the other or to make representations on behalf of the other party or its products or services. 16 Availability of Equitable Relief. Licensee recognizes that the breach of the license restrictions set forth in Section 3 (License Restrictions) or the confidentiality provisions set forth in Section 8 (Confidentiality) could result in irreparable damage and harm to Polymesh (and its Affiliates) and Polymesh may be without an adequate remedy at law in the event of any such breach. Therefore, Licensee agrees that, if any of the foregoing provisions is breached or is threatened to be breached, Polymesh and/or its Affiliates may: (a) seek to obtain specific performance, (b) seek to enjoin any Person that has breached, or threatens to breach, any provision of Section 3 (License Restrictions) or Section 8 (Confidentiality) from engaging in any activity restricted by such provisions, and (c) pursue any one or more of the foregoing or any other remedy available to it under Applicable Laws. Polymesh's seeking or obtaining any such relief shall not preclude Polymesh from obtaining any other relief to which Polymesh may be entitled.
